NCCE is dedicated to the advancement of the highest quality college-level cooperative education

Dear Guidance Counselor,

The National Commission for Cooperative Education, dedicated to the advancement of high quality, college-level, cooperative education, is pleased to share with you this 2007-2008 Resource Guide – The Best of Co-op: A Guide to the Best Co-op Colleges & Employers.

We are also pleased to announce our Sixth Annual National Co-op Scholarship Program consisting of 185 merit co-op scholarships of $6,000 for high school seniors and transfer students who are planning to participate in college cooperative education. Many of these merit co-op scholarships are renewable for four years valued at $24,000. Please see page 16 for scholarship application details.

We hope that you share this Resource Guide with your staff and students. You may also learn more about cooperative education by visiting our homepage at www.co-op.edu or any of the other college or employer web sites identified throughout the publication.

Sincerely,

Dr. Constantine N. Papadakis

Dear Student,

No one knows more than you how challenging the next several months will be. You have many important decisions to make — what college is right for you, what program of study will you pursue, which colleges can you afford, and, ultimately, which career path will you pursue upon graduation.

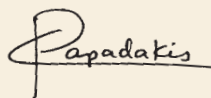

We believe that cooperative education could be a key factor in helping you make these important decisions. To assist you in your selection of the right college for your future, we are pleased to share with you this 2007-2008 Resource Guide — The Best of Co-op: A Guide to the Best Co-op Colleges & Employers.

Also, we are pleased to offer you the opportunity to apply for a $6,000 merit co-op scholarship. Many of these merit co-op scholarships are renewable for four years valued at $24,000. Please see page 16 for scholarship application details.

We hope that this information will assist you in choosing your college. You may also learn more about cooperative education by visiting our homepage at www.co-op.edu or any of the other college or employer web sites identified throughout this Resource Guide.

We wish you every success in making the right college choice.

Sincerely,

Dr. Constantine N. Papadakis
