Like the idea of getting hands-on professional experience in college—and getting paid for it? So did we. That's why the University of Cincinnati invented the whole idea of the co-op experience nearly 100 years ago. Today, as many as 4,000 students co-op at 1,500 organizations in 33 states and nine foreign countries. And they earn as much as $40,000 before graduation.

Experience. Opportunity. Tradition.

it's all uc
