

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Providing a Highly Skilled, Diverse National Workforce, Through Partnerships Between Education and Industry.

MISSION

*Advance high quality, college-level, cooperative education on behalf of
THE BEST CO-OP COLLEGES & EMPLOYERS*

The National Commission for Cooperative Education (NCCE) is dedicated to the advancement of the highest quality, college-level, cooperative education programs in the United States. The Commission provides national leadership to encourage program quality and standards of excellence. Since 1962, NCCE and its college and corporate partners have supported the development and advancement of quality work integrated learning through cooperative education programs.

The NCCE Board of Trustees and staff, in conjunction with a significant network of co-op practitioners, provide a number of annual programs and services including:

- ◆ National Co-op Scholarship Program
- ◆ Co-op Hall of Fame
- ◆ Co-op Research Consortium
- ◆ Public Awareness Campaigns
- ◆ Corporate Symposia
- ◆ Student & Parent Response Center
- ◆ National Advocacy

These NCCE programs are designed to serve the interests and needs of multiple audiences including:

- ◆ High School Students
- ◆ College & University Presidents
- ◆ High School Guidance Counselors
- ◆ Community College Transfer Students
- ◆ Human Resources Executives
- ◆ Admissions & Financial Aid Deans
- ◆ Co-op Professionals & Institutional Researchers
- ◆ Distinguished Cooperative Education Alumni
- ◆ International Workplace Exchange Program

The National Commission's Board of Trustees has adopted the following six institutional standards of excellence in cooperative education:

PROGRAM QUALITY
CENTRALITY OF COOPERATIVE EDUCATION
CORPORATE STAKEHOLDERS
INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCES
PERVASIVENESS
HISTORICAL CONTEXT

PLEASE VIEW OUR HOMEPAGE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

www.co-op.edu